Dear Folks

Well today is Christmas. It sure does feel funny being away from home especially on Christmas. Had a swell dinner. Turkey, potatoes, peas, cake and above all Cranberry Sauce. It was just the kind that Dad would love.

Wensday I recieved my first letter addressed over seas. They were the ones addressed to England. I got about ten that day. From Aunt Mabel. She mention that she might move down to 23 Summer St. That sure would be great. Then she could spend all the holidays with us. That really would be great.

Went to midnight Mass last night, sure did think of home during it. When I got back from Mass found a card from the Reefs along with a swell letter from John on my bunk. It was the first one addressed to Company F. Thank the Reefs for me, will try & write & thank them.

This morning I got a letter from Dot & Mother. It sure was a swell Christmas present to hear from them. Tell mother that every
